25X1

1. On 5 August 1952, 18 graduates of the East China Military Area Artillery School arrived for service with the Amoy Fortress Command.
2. From 29 July to 7 August, 30 Chinese Communist Army engineers were engaged on a project in the sea between Amoy and Kulangshau (118-04, 24-27) Strait.
3. The Amoy authorities have stated that government and civil organizations may hold meetings in Protestant and Catholic churches in the Amoy area. Organizations using these premises must pay between JMP 5,000 and JMP 20,000 as a depreciation subsidy.
4. The Amoy Public Security Office has decided to abolish four branch public security offices in order to reduce the number of middle level government personnel and to strengthen the staffs of the local police stations. After these branch stations are abolished, a police station will be established in each street making a total of 24 stations.¹
5. On 25 July the Amoy authorities executed two Nationalist agents. They were:
 - a. TS'AI Chia-hsiang (5591/0857/4382) who was arrested in October 1951. He was chief of the bazooka section, 4 Company, 2 Battalion, of the Nationalist Nanhai (117- , 22-) Column.
 - b. HUANG Wen-kuei (7806/2429/6311) who was arrested in November 1951. He was commander of the 60-gun (sic) section, 6 Company, 2 Battalion, of the Nationalist Nanhai Column.

1. Comment. These 24 street stations will exercise strict census and population controls.
